

Committee on Accessible Transportation and Mobility Transportation Research Board

Newsletter: October 2022

September 2022 meeting

The last committee meeting for Members and Friends of AME50 was held on September 20. The meeting notes and recording can be found on our web site.

Transportation Research Board (TRB) Annual Meeting

- Registration for the TRB Annual Meeting is now open. Early registration fees are available until December 2.
- AME50 will hold a hybrid committee meeting during the Annual Meeting. The meeting will be held on Monday, January 9, 2023. We will be sending a registration link and zoom information to those planning to participate virtually.
- TRB is inviting all AME50 members and friends to "Equity and Environmental Justice in Committee Activities a Joint Committee Meeting". This is a planning meeting for an event to be held in 2024. The meeting is tentatively scheduled for Wednesday, January 11, 2023 in the afternoon. Check the conference schedule for more specific information.
- AME50 Showcase – during our general committee meeting, we want to highlight a few projects from our members and friends about programs or projects related to innovation in transportation accessibility. The presentations will be 5-7 minutes each to feature multiple speakers. If you are interested, please contact Judy and Todd with a description of the project/program and the value/outcomes for AME50 members, including tools and resources from the work.

TRANSED-DRT 2022 and Future TRANSED

- Reminder, that if you would like your TRANSED paper to be considered for the TRR Collection from the conference, please submit it here by October 31. Please make sure to adhere to all of the author requirements. Paper submission does not guarantee publication.

- Registrants for TRB's TRANSED: Mobility, Accessibility & Demand Response Transportation Conference can now access all session recordings online. The virtual conference was held September 12 – 16.
- If you are interested in being part of a committee to start planning the next TRANSED event, please contact Judy Shanley by Friday, October 28.

Making submissions to the newsletter

The guidelines for making submissions to AME50's quarterly newsletter are as follows:

- Content shared must be aligned with the mission and activities of AME50 and its members and friends.
- Members and friends who wish to include content in the AME50 Quarterly newsletter must be able to articulate this connection and do so in their request to include the content.
- The newsletter is not a forum to share information about commercial products or revenue generating services.
- The content must appeal to a range of AME50 members – across professional disciplines – across geographies, etc.
- AME50 Leadership will make decisions regarding content that will be included in the newsletter based on the relevance and appropriateness of the content to our members, the currency of the topic, and the availability of space in the newsletter.

To contribute content, please send your request to susan.clarke@cta-otc.gc.ca.

This information can also be found on our web site.

Reminders

- You can visit our web site for the latest AME50 information, including meeting minutes and member resources.
- Please make sure to keep your MyTRB profile information, especially your contact details and professional interests, up to date so that you don't miss out on information.
